

CHANGES IN ORANG ASLI LIVES IN MALAYSIA

Engaged Visual Ethnography

23 Feb. 2023 Thu.

Venue: Zoom

5:00-7:30pm (Japan time)

Registration: <https://bit.ly/OAJapan2023>

Language: English, Japanese, Malay

Photo: Jefree Salim

Hosted by the Anthropological Research Unit, ILCAA, Tokyo University of Foreign Studies in collaboration with the Centre for Malaysian Indigenous Studies, Universiti Malaya and the Orang Asli Archive, Keene State College

Kota Kinabalu
Liaison Office

CHANGES IN ORANG ASLI LIVES IN MALAYSIA

Engaged Visual Ethnography

23 Feb. 2023 5:00-7:30pm (Japan time)

Venue: Zoom

Language: English, Japanese, Malay

(online simultaneous/consecutive interpretation)

Registration: <https://bit.ly/OAJapan2023>

Programme

- 5:00 Aya Kawai (ILCAA, TUFS) Opening remarks: Changes in Malaysia and Orang Asli
- 5:05 Shingo Odani (Chiba University)
Changes in Orang Asli Settlements around Taman Negara
- 5:15 Kazuhiro Suda (Hokkai-Gakuen University)
Economic Activities in Sungai Sayap, Terengganu
- 5:30 Yukio Kuchikura (Emeritus Professor of Gifu University)
Economic Activities of the Resettled Semaq Beri Community in Terengganu (focused on 1978-1979)
- 5:45 Juli Edo (CMIS, Universiti Malaya)
Changes in the Land Rights of Semai: A Glimpse of Ethnohistory
- 6:00 Lipah Anjang (Semai)
Role of Women: Past and Present
— Q and A and break —
- 6:25 Jefree Salim (Seletar Photographer)
Selatar: The Sea People of Johor
- 6:40 Toshihiro Nobuta (National Museum of Ethnology)
A Turning Point for Temuan People in Negeri Sembilan
- 6:50 Shereen Ajani (Universiti Malaya)
Temuan Bukit Lanjan: 22 Years after Development
- 7:00 Rusaslina Idrus (CMIS, Universiti Malaya)
Visual Ethnography for Land Rights
— Q and A and discussion —
- 7:20 Rodney Obien (Keene State College)
Closing remarks: The Orang Asli Archive as Memory House

CHANGES IN ORANG ASLI LIVES IN MALAYSIA

Engaged visual ethnography

"Orang Asli" is the general term for the Indigenous Peoples of Peninsular Malaysia, which comprises 18 diverse groups: sea people, farmers, hunter-gatherers, and so on.

Under the rapid development of Malaysia,
the Orang Asli have experienced significant changes in their lives.

23 Feb.2023 Thu
5:00-7:30pm (Japan time)
Venue: Zoom

This symposium will bring together Orang Asli representatives, Malaysian researchers, and Japanese researchers to talk about these changes, through the use of visual images.

Registration:<https://bit.ly/OAJapan2023>
Language: English, Japanese, Malay
(online simultaneous/consecutive interpretation)

Photo: Jefree Salim